

Belle Vallée

C E L L A R S

Vintage: 2005

Varietal: Pinot Gris

Cases Produced:
1950

Appellation:
Oregon

Bottled:
March 7, 2006

Winery:

Belle Vallée (Beautiful Valley) Cellars is located in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. Nestled between two mountain ranges, the cool climate and terrain of this western Oregon valley is a prime growing area for the Pinot Noir Grape.

Winemakers Notes:

An "Oregon Version" of Alsation Pinot Gris, a dry wine with riper more scented fruit. Melon and honey with creamy mouth filling texture. Lingering mineral and pear finish. Drink now through 2009.

The Vineyards:

- Quail Run(31%) Rogue Valley
- Rainbows End(18%) Willamette Valley
- Winters Hill(26%) Willamette Valley
- Freedom Hill(25%) Willamette Valley

Silver Medal,
2006 LA County Fair
2006 NW Wine Summit
2006 Indy International